WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1907.

MAYSVILLE, KY. MONDAY, JUNE 3, 1907

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

What makes the troubles of every day
Break like bubbles and fade away?
Grit.
What wins victory from defeat?
What never knows when it is beat?
Grit.
What have men honored since time began?
What makes a man want to be a man?
Grit.
Brother, take heart when ill winds blow,
Work on, hope on, be a man and show
Your Grit.

Mr. Henry S. Wood is ill at his home in Washington.

The Northfork was nearly out of its banks Friday night.

A good deal of tobacco was planted out Saturday in the county.

Fishing is said to be fine below the dam on the Northfork at Murphyville.

Leona Parker, aged 2 years, died at the home of her parents in Short street Saturday.

Soaps of all kinds at all prices.

M. F. WILLIAMS & CO.

Denis Holmes, colored, died at his home in Fifth street Saturday, aged about 70. He was insured with Colonel Rosenham for $75.

Miss Roberta Taulbee assisted in the High School entertainment on last Friday evening and her work of managing the affair helped make it a success.

It is now said that the American Tobacco Company has made an offer to the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association for the entire 1906 crop, which has been pooled and of which none has been sold.

Yesterday afternoon while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Naden in Lee street a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marc Crowell was bitten on the leg by a small dog belonging to the former. Although a pet, Mr. Naden had the dog killed forthwith. The skin on the child's limb was not broken and nothing serious from the bite is anticipated.

Friday Uncle Dick Breck rounded out four years faithful service as watchman at the Commerce street C. and O. railroad crossing. During that time he has lost only one day. Besides being diligent and faithful in the discharge of his onerous duties, he is much liked by the residents of the neighborhood on account of his kindly disposition and watchful care of children.

Mr. W. B. Dawson returned Friday from New Mexico. While there he located and registered 160 acres of Government land in Roosevelt county. His brother Charley, formerly a citizen of Maysville, has been a resident ever since the opening of the land by the Government to settlers, and is now one of the well do farmers of that growing country. During his journey Mr. Dawson traveled over 4,000 miles.

Mrs. Alec Calhoun of Market street is in receipt of a letter from her son, Frank, which gives rather a glowing account of the Jamestown Exposition, and altogether different from what is being heralded abroad setting forth its incompleteness. He speaks of much already to be seen and states by the middle of June or July 1st the great world's show will be in perfect running order, and worth the time and money of any one to pay it a visit.

ENNIS—VOGEL

Mr. Bert Lee Ennis and Miss Nora Vogel, both of the East End, were married yesterday morning at 1 o'clock in the writing room at the Central Hotel, Squire J. O. Pickrell officiating.

MRS. JANE YORK.

Mrs. Mary Jane York died Saturday morning at 11:30 at her home near Gilead, aged 79. She was preceded to the grave three years ago by her aged husband.

Two grown sons survive her.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in Mt. Gilead Cemetery.

500 pieces sheet music 5 cents at Gerbrich's.

Historic Lexington echoed with the old-time rebel yell on Wednesday when the Chesapeake and Ohio train passed through the city bearing the remnant of the hardy Texas Rangers to the Confederate reunion at Richmond, Virginia. There were over a hundred of these valiant old warriors, and as they filed down from the cars and out upon the platform for a breath of Bluegrass air and a glimpse of its capital, they looked every inch the heroes whose deeds of valor have thrilled the hearts of every son of the South since they struggled for the rights of the Lone Star State, says The Leader.

An Especially Satisfactory Summer Corset is a

WARNER'S RUST-PROOF.

'Tis then that its Rust-Proof quality is put to the severe test, which it never fails to meet satisfactorily. No rust stains on the corset cover or undervest. No disfigurement of the corset itself.

The girdle shapes offer an acceptable solution of the problem of summer corset comfort for the slender and average figure.

CORSETS $1 to $2½.
GIRDLES 50c to $1.00.

Full-Fashioned Underwear.

Do you know what full-fashioned Underwear means? It is knit, not cut to fit. The garments come from the knitting machines with selvedge edges that shape the finished underwear, no cutting being done in the after process to make them fit. As a result they feel more comfortable, look better, wear longer, and are consequently the most economical. The Forest Mills brand has stood the test of many years. Come in to let us tell you its merits.

FOR MEN.

At 25c Each—Excellent Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers. At 50c Each—French Balbriggan carefully cut and well finished, also open mesh garments for sultry weather comfort.

At $1—Lisle and Balbriggan Unions, full-fashioned, knee length and sleeveless, or half sleeve. An ideal summer garment.

FOR CHILDREN.

10c to 40c Each, according to size. Close ribbed gauze cotton in knee and ankle length, well stayed bands, neatly finished neck and arms.

Underwaists—E. Z. and Muslin, 2 to 13 year sizes, 25c.

FOR WOMEN.

Drawers, 25c, 29c, 50c—Knee length ribbed gauge cotton with French yoke 25c. Same in extra sizes 29c. Lisle with lace trimmed edge, carefully fitted band, wide leg, 50c.

ONE AARON KOHN, Louisville's worse than criminal lawyer, might take a profitable squint at ABE HUMMEL's finish and do a little reformation on the side before it is everlasting too late. The Penitentiary is yawning for AARON.

IN the last ten years the foreign sales of American manufactures have increased from $258,000,000 annually to $700,000,000. That is a gain of $442,000,000 for ten years. It sizes up remarkably well with the gain of $105,000,000 in the first 100 years of American manufacturing activity.

POSSIBLY the changes of the next two or three years may result in over-production, but with our population increasing at a rate that calls for the product of 500,000 additional bales of cotton every year, and with domestic mills supplying only 55 to 60 per cent of the fine goods actually consumed in this country, it would seem as if the break were some years ahead.

THE Kentucky Republican State Convention will meet in Louisville two weeks from next Wednesday. There is every indication that Hon. A. E. WILLSON will receive the nomination for Governor by acclamation. The opposition to WILLSON only exists in a few spots, and his nomination is now conceded by any one who can see through an open window. Senator COX of Maysville will make good material for Lieutenant-Governor or Auditor. He prefers the latter place, and if nominated would add great strength to the Willson ticket.

Thanks to the Knights Templar

For this great offering. We ordered several hundred beds and cots to rent to the hotels and boarding-houses of Maysville to prepare them to accommodate the throngs during the recent Knights Templar Conclave. In the ordinary course of traffic this surplus stock would last our trade over one year, so we have decided to make a special price upon surplus cots and push them out promptly. So here goes.

WINTER'S

Maysville,

THE bulletin of the League of American Municipalities for the past month calls attention to the fact that Covington is without poolrooms for the first time in twenty-six years, and compliments Mayor BEACH on the fact.

GEN. STEPHEN D. LEE, Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate Veterans, has been invited to deliver the address at Arlington on Confederate Decoration Day, June 9th. Gen. LEE was in Richmond at the Confederate reunion the last two days of last month.

COL. HENRY T. DUNCAN, Democratic ex-Mayor of Lexington, is building a fire under the incompetents who have been ruling and ruining Lexington with the usual Democratic gang influence. If what Mr. DUNCAN says is true, the Bluegrass metropolis is going the wrong road to progress and prosperity.

THE veterans who fought in the Union cause are rapidly passing away, and it is estimated that "taps" is sounded for 82 of the old boys in blue every day, or 30,000 a year. It is indeed, getting to be a "thin blue line." By the year 1950 there may be a dozen of the old boys left, but it is very doubtful. Thirty thousand old soldiers marching slowly, but surely, across the dark river of Death is a spectacle appalling, indeed, to the imagination.

IT SAVED HIS LIFE.

Leo Litrichstein, appearing in "Before and After," met well-known musician at a dinner not long ago.

"I, too, am a musician in a small way," Litrichstein said. "My musical talent was once the means of saving my life."

"How was that?" the musician asked.

"There was a great flood in our town in my boyhood," replied Litrichstein. "When the water struck our house my father got on a bed and floated with the stream until rescued."

"And you?" said the musician.

"Well," said Litrichstein, "I accompanied him on the piano."

VERY FEW

Very few vacant lots are now on the market. People who are alert to the future demands are buying up the vacant lots which are conveniently located to the central part of the city. Also, those lying in the suburban localities.

Among some choice lots which I have for sale will be found one fronting 132 feet on the C. and O. Railroad just West of Lexington street.

Another on the corner of Lexington street and Forest avenue, fronting 132 feet on Forest avenue.

Lot fronting 150 feet on Second street and extending back the same width to Third street, and lying between the residences of Thomas A. Davis and Curt Rains. Can be divided to suit the purchaser.

Some beautiful lots in the Sixth Ward on the streetcar line, suitable for residences of moderate cost.

HOUSES

Houses ranging in price from $500 to $7,500, located some on Third street and some on Fourth street.

A particularly desirable 5-room house, lot with 70 feet front, on West Third street, that I can sell for $850; a bargain.

Good two-story house, located on the North side of Second street in the Sixth Ward, all in good repair, which I am offering at $2,200.

Good two-story brick house, located on the South side of East Second street, for $2,000.

Other property which I am offering at very reasonable prices.

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kicks" too long—it's the short, quick fellow that counts and cuts.

Note: The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

The history of World's Fair has ever been a history of postponement and an unreadiness in a completed form.

Great Chicago, which is held up to us as an example of push, energy and Northern enterprise, postponed her opening for a year (1892 to 1893), and then was not ready.

The Paris Exposition made a similar postponement and their exhibits were in an incomplete condition for months after her gates were open.

St. Louis, surely, in so brief a space we have not forgotten her experience! It was a great struggle to get some of the State Buildings and exhibits prepared at all, much less ready at the appointed time.

Procrastination is, in such cases, the rule, rather than the exception. It is not the characteristic of any one section, or anyone people.

One cause of these delays can be found in the history of architecture. Going back to the earliest ages and reviewing the records of construction, we will find the same story. A story of delayed fulfillment.

Coming down to our present day: Take, for instance, the Great Capitol of Texas. The records tell us it was two years longer in completion than the state and people expected.

Our Congressional Library, with our invincible Government behind it—was there not some delays, some disappointments?

So why this howl about Virginia and the un-readiness of the Jamestown Exposition?

Why this fault-finding and unjust criticism of Virginians, as a people?

In the light of some of our state failures, we might well quote the proverb of "glass houses" and the parable of the "beam".

The completion of the Garden of Eden by the Lord Himself is the only example in history which the writer recalls, where any great Exposition was ready in all its appointments when man and woman came to take possession.

F. G. M.

[Our "Fair Contributor" is almost correct, and is quite timely in her intelligent criticism of our little editorial in THE PUBLIC LEDGER calling attention to the apparent failure of the Jamestown Exposition as a completed "World's Fair." The Editor of THE LEDGER is proud of his Southern lineage; in fact our infancy and youth were spent under the maternal influence of a "Rebel" mother, grandmother and a typical "secesh" family. But we are also proud of the fact that our father wore the "Blue" as a Captain in Lincoln's Army. Therefore we are half Southerner and half Northerner—"half and half," the historic attitude of old Kentucky in the Civil War—an "equitable neutrality," as it were, that gave to our beloved Commonwealth the unique distinction of keeping "on the fence" until "the late misundertanding between the states" blew over.

Both the "Rebel yell" and the fife and drum of the "Union Army" were music to our infantile years. But that is another story.

Far be it from our intention to cast a slur or a reflection upon our section and people.

But any one who likes to see things hum and keep in touch with the spirit of this progressive age, regrets that Kentucky and many portions of the South do not keep step to the music of advancement, development and commercial power.

Now regard to the incompleteness of the Jamestown Fair. We believe that when finished, it will be the most beautiful of all expositions. Regarding its present chaotic state, the cause is plain: It has outgrown the original plans several times over. It was planned on a limited scale; it has developed far beyond the capacity of the builders, and upon the whole, it will be of inestimable value to the South and to the entire world.—EDITOR.]

Whatever Mrs. Sage may do no one believes she will squander any money.

A Mild Laxative
Ask your doctor to name some of the results of constipation. His long list will begin with sick-headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Then ask him if he would recommend your using Ayer's Pills for constipation. Just one pill at bedtime, a few times, that's all. We save no secrets! We publish the formulas of our preparations. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

BEAUTIFUL BRONZE STATUE

Unveiled at the Washington Catholic Cemetery Yesterday—Interesting Ceremonies

Notwithstanding yesterday was a bleak, cold, drizzling day, the memorial exercises in the Catholic Cemetery at Washington were attended by a large assemblage and the program as published in Friday's LEDGER carried out.

An imposing statue recently erected was blessed, followed by rosary and sermon by Rev. Father Constantine, C. P.

The floral decoration of the graves was beautiful and profuse, not a single mound was forgotten.

Had the day been bright and pretty, the ground would not have held the people.

Under the guiding hand of Rev. Father Jones the Washington Cemetery will soon be the most beautiful burying ground in the state.

Secretary W. H. Taft has been appointed Chairman of the Committee on Welfare Work for Government Employees. Gov. Beckham is one of the Vice-Chairmen of the Committee. Of the many improvements, the need of which is indicated by complaints of public employees, the welfare department has paid considerable attention to the establishing of emergency hospitals in Government buildings. Many of the unfavorable conditions, as has been shown repeatedly, are due to the fact that the business of the Government had doubled in some departments within the last few years.
